Based in North West London Fifosys are a leading provider of managed services that include IT support and solutions relevant for small and medium sized businesses. Fifosys is vendor independent. We specialise in infrastructure; designing, developing, implementing and supporting our client's infrastructure end-to-end. Fifosys work closely with our clients to understand their business requirements, so that they can match requirements to budget, and ensure a trouble free and secure IT environment.

Mitesh Patel, Managing Director at Fifosys, started the business whilst completing his MSc in Computer Science in 2001 and his key to success is,

"Be transparent and constantly add value".

Fifosys now turnover 2m per annum and employ full-time 20 staff at their head office in West Hampstead, plus another nine associates.

Together, we are dedicated to giving the best IT support on the planet, built on a combination of knowledge, understanding, service and openness. We've grown from a small start-up into a skilled and respected company by applying these principles to everything we do and everyone we meet.

We really do try to help our clients to sleep more soundly at night, and to spend more time doing the things they're good at - like running their business

Let Fifosys assist your business with:
